

“Original Vilnius” Image

This is the Original Vilnius Image that is the absolute finest. This is the image that was painted under the direction of Saint Faustina. Notice how the light rays go all the way to the bottom of the image. The words “Jesus, I trust in You” will be added in different languages when it is ordered. The original had the words in the frame.

“Apostles” Image

This is one of our most popular images. It is similar to the original Hyla, but much clearer. Like all of our other images, it can be ordered in sizes from 3 feet on up to 10 feet tall in different languages. Call for special order in multiple languages.

“Nuns” Image

This image was derived from the Apostles image for an order of nuns who requested one without the matting and arch. Shown here in double languages in Spanish and English. Like many of our other images, it can be special ordered in many multiple languages (up to three) by special order. It has quickly become one of our favorites. Image is much clearer than you see it here.

“Skemp” Image

Seen on EWTN TV during the daily Mass in the Chapel of Our Lady of the Angels Monastery, this image is very popular and it shows the rays of light emanating to the sides. The original was painted by Robert Skemp on wood in 1982, given to Pope John Paul II and is now at the National Shrine of Divine Mercy in Tanzania. This image, like the “Hyla” is wider than all the others. Sizes, like the “Hyla” start at 24”x36” and go up in size by one foot increments: 4,5,6,7,8,9,10 feet high. Go to the www.DivineMercyPictures.com website to see all the different sizes and prices for the images we have available.

“Shrine” Image

This image was painted by Maria Gama in 1945 under the direction of Father Joseph Jarzebowski, MIC. A black and white photo of the Vilnius image was used as the source. It is now in the National Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Mass.
